DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1 – 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent Application No. 2002/0085701 (Parsons et al.) in view of U.S. Patent Application No. 2004/0019700 (Ilan et al.).

With respect to claims 1 – 22, note that Parsons et al. teaches the claimed limitations except for a VoIP gateway having the ability to transfer the incoming call to a recordation system. See the Abstract, paragraphs 0027 – 0030, 0033, 0036 – 0038, 0040 – 0041, 0047 – 0048, 0088, 0092 – 0095 and 0099 and Figs. 1 and 2 of Parsons et al. In particular note PSTN, PBX 102, presence system 112 and LAN 108.

Note that Ilan et al. teach a VoIP gateway (see elements 24A and 24B) having the ability to transfer the incoming call to a recordation system (see elements 14 and 28). Note also that switch 18 of Ilan et al can be a PBX (see paragraph 14 and 23 of Ilan et al.) It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have incorporated such a VoIP gateway having the ability to transfer the incoming call to a recordation system as taught by Ilan et al. into the Parsons et al. system as such would only entail the substitution of one intranet gateway for another.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 - 22 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
